BACKGROUND

Rut Schereiner was born in Argentina. She obtained a piano diploma in her native country and thus started courses in higher education.

Arrived in France she obtained an orchestra conducting and a music analysis diploma at “l'Ecole Normale Supérieure of Paris”. She then graduated from la Sorbonne with master's degree in the music and musicology of the 20th century.

She also holds a certification in music education and music management (Director) from the Ministry of Culture.

With the composer Luis Naon she is the artistic director of “l'ensemble Diagonal”: a flexible group devoted to contemporary works.

Her career in Argentina includes engagements with the Bahia Blanca, Mendoza, San Juan and Rio Negro symphonic orchestras and at the Teatro Cervantes and Teatro Colon, Buenos Aires.

Rut Schereiner is renowned for having conducted a significant number of premières with groups such as:

Movimiento, l'Itinéraire, Regards, Interface, Ensembles du Conservatoire National Supérieur de Musique de Paris, Diagonal, les solistes from Paris Orchestra (France), Vortex, Hic and Nunc, (Geneva), Inercia (Barcelona), Troppi (Buenos Aires), Reims Opera, Lyon Opera, Artic Philharmonic Chamber Orchestra Norway), Recherche (Germany) and the Haute Ecole de Musique de Genève orchestra.

In October 2019 she was named at the Conservatoire National de Musique et de Danse de Paris as professor of introductory orchestra conducting.

What's more, she gives conducting seminars and is in charge of Master Classes in Argentina, France, Spain, Switzerland, Portugal, Finland and Chile.
